Privacy Policy

Effective Date: November 4, 2026

1. Purpose of This Website

This website is intended for authorized employees, contractors, and representatives of Big Yield Agriculture LLC. Although the website is accessible through a public-facing internet link, it is intended solely for internal company use.

Unauthorized access or use of this website is prohibited.

2. Information We Collect

When accessing this website, we may collect and store limited information, including:

- Employee names and login credentials.
- Account and authentication information.
- Login dates, times, and activity.
- IP addresses and device or browser information.
- Information entered or submitted through the website.

3. How We Use Your Information

Information collected through this website is used for legitimate business purposes, including:

- Providing authorized access to internal company resources.
- Verifying user identities.
- Maintaining account security.
- Monitoring website activity and preventing unauthorized access.
- Supporting internal company operations.

4. Cloudflare Turnstile

This website uses Cloudflare Turnstile, a security service provided by Cloudflare, Inc., to help distinguish legitimate human users from automated traffic and protect against bots, spam, and unauthorized access attempts.

Cloudflare Turnstile may process technical information such as IP addresses, browser characteristics, TLS fingerprints, and other technical signals to perform its security functions.

This information is processed for website security and bot detection purposes.

For additional information about how Cloudflare collects and processes information through Turnstile, please review their official privacy documentation:
